How to get there

How to get there

Journey by underground:

Russell Square station on the Piccadilly Line (dark blue) is close to the hotel and stops at Heathrow Airport, Covent Garden, Leicester Square and Knightsbridge (Horrados). The nearest tube station is Russell Square, Piccadilly Line. The hotel is just 2 min. walking distance.

Journey by bus:

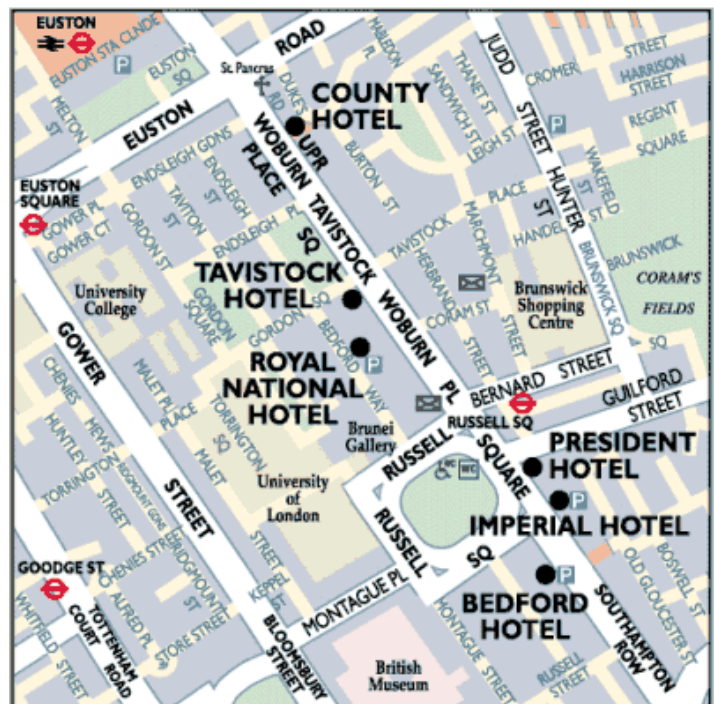

London Buses stop near the hotel. Airport transfers are available from the front of the hotel organised through the porters (payable locally).

Journey by train:

King's Cross, Euston and St. Pancras Stations are a short walk from the hotel.

Car parking:

There is underground (pay) parking at the Imperial Hotel with Congestion Charge payment points.

Journey by airplane:

It takes approximately 60 minutes from any of the five London airports to the venue.

From Heathrow take the (blue) Piccadilly line directly to Russell Square. The Heathrow Express is expensive and saves only approximately 15 minutes providing that you take a taxi at Paddington.

From Stansted take the Stansted Express to Liverpool Street Station and change there to the (red) Central line to go to Holborn (four stops).

From Gatwick take the train of Thameslink to King's Cross Thameslink station. Kings Cross is approximately 15 minutes walk from the hotel. Alternatively change there to the Piccadilly line and go south to Russell Square. Do not take the Gatwick Express to Victoria.

From Luton take the Shuttle Bus to the train station. From there take the Thameslink train to King's Cross Thameslink station. Change there to the Piccadilly line or walk.

From City Airport take the Dockland Light Railroad to Bank and change there to the (red) Central line to go to Holborn (three stops).
